ArrowHead Recruitments & Consulting

Software Tester

Description

Description

Information systems testing technicians execute test plans to evaluate the performance of software applications and information and telecommunications systems. They are employed in information technology units throughout the private and public sectors.

Responsibilities

Job duties

Here are some of the main activities and tasks that Information systems testing technicians have to perform, and some of the physical demands they involve:

- Develop and document software testing plans
- Install software and hardware and configure operating system software in preparation for testing
- Execute, analyze and document results of software application tests and information and telecommunication systems tests
- Develop and implement software and information system testing policies, procedures and scripts
- Identify, report, track and propose solutions to product defects.

Workplaces and employers

Here are the typical workplaces where Information systems testing technicians are employed and some of their main characteristics:

- Information technology departments in the private and public sectors

Qualifications

Employment requirements

This is what you typically need for the job.

- Completion of a college program in computer science, computer programming or network administration is usually required.
- College or other courses in computer programming or network administration are usually required.
- Certification or training provided by software vendors may be required by some employers.

Hiring organization
ArrowHead Recruitments & Consulting

Employment Type
Full-time

Beginning of employment
ASAP

Duration of employment
Permanent

Industry
Information Systems Testing Technicians

Job Location
Edmonton, Alberta, Canada

Working Hours
9 AM TO 5 PM

Base Salary
$ 15.45/hr - $ 17.32/hr

Date posted
May 1, 2025

Valid through
31.05.2025